AGRM Code of Conduct

The Anchorage Gospel Rescue Mission is a community faith-based organization dedicated to providing meals, shelter, and Biblically sound spiritual guidance. Participation in our organization’s programs is subject to the observance of our organization’s rules and procedures. The activities outlined below are strictly prohibited. Any participant or staff member who violates this Code is subject to discipline, up to and including removal from the program.

- Abusive language towards a staff member, another volunteer, or another program participant.
- Possession or use of alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs on AGRM property or reporting to our volunteer program while under the influence of drugs or alcohol.
- Bringing onto AGRM’s property dangerous or unauthorized materials such as explosives, firearms, weapons or other similar items.
- Discourtesy or rudeness to a staff member, another volunteer, or another program participant.
- Verbal, physical, or visual harassment (including anything of a sexual nature) of a staff member, another volunteer, or another program participant.
- Actual or threatened violence toward any individual or group.
- Conduct endangering the life, safety, health or well-being of others.
- Failure to follow any AGRM policy or procedure.
- Bullying or taking unfair advantage of any participant.
- Failing to cooperate with an adult supervisor/leader/mentor.

I have read and I understand the [Anchorage Gospel Rescue Mission]’s Code of Conduct. I agree to abide by the rules described above and understand that I may be removed as a participant if I violate any of these rules.

Agreement and Signature

By submitting this application, I affirm that the facts set forth in it are true and complete. I understand that if I am accepted as a volunteer, any false statements, omissions, or other misrepresentations made by me on this application may result in my immediate dismissal.
